

VILLA BURNS HOMES, PERMITS ATROCITIES

Enraged Because All Men Fled San Andres to Escape Being Pressed Into Service.

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, Oct. 20.—Panic-stricken people from San Andres are pouring into this city, reporting that the whole district is being depopulated. Villa rode into San Andres, a mining town, twenty-five miles west of here, with 400 men yesterday and, enraged because all the men had run away to escape being pressed into his service, ordered the houses burned and, refugees say, permitted atrocities upon the defenseless remainder of the inhabitants.

Women were attacked in their burning homes, it is asserted, or in the streets, and afterward were clubbed, stabbed or ridden down by mounted men who continually dashed through the streets.

One refugee told of seeing children picked up by the heels and hurled into the flames, while others were cleft from head to toe with sabres.

Suspension of Guarantees Is Proclaimed in Juarez.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 20.—Carrying out a decree issued by Carranza ten days ago, a proclamation was posted in Juarez today announcing that all civil guarantees are suspended in the State of Chihuahua. Carranza's decree applies to all Mexico. Suspension of civil rights gives the military and police authority to put persons to death without trial.

War Secretary Stops Parloings of Regular Army Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary of War Baker has issued an order stating that "under the present unusual conditions which have caused the concentration of so large a part of the army and the mobilization of most of the regular army reserves, the Secretary does not believe that approval of furloughs to the regular army reserve after one year's honorable service is justified. Applications, therefore, will not be forwarded until further instructions."

SEEK SALT LAKE CITY MAN IN NICHOLS CASE

Sampson, Alias Norman, One of Alleged Murder Robbers, Will Be Brought Here Soon.

Alexander Sampson, alias Walter Norman, who is wanted in connection with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Nichols, who was frightened to death on Sept. 8, 1915, when a doorman employed in her home at No. 4 East Seventy-ninth Street admitted three men for the purpose of robbing her, is serving a term in Salt Lake City for grand larceny.

The Chief of Police of Salt Lake City sent word yesterday that Sampson had been convicted of crimes committed last summer. His fingerprints and pictures tallied with those at Police Headquarters here and arrangements will be made to have him brought here, where Sampson was one of the men named in a confession by Onni Tala, who allowed the robbers to enter the Nichols home.

THOUGHT IT WAS HIS OWN HOUSE, SO HE BROKE IN

Prisoner, "Confessing" He Was Drunk, Said He Believed Wife Had Locked Him Out.

"I thought I was home, Your Honor, and that my wife had locked me out, so I broke into the house."

That was the explanation given to Magistrate Fitch in the Jamaica Police Court yesterday by Harry Granger, thirty-four, a bookkeeper, of Ozone Park, Queens. Granger was charged with burglary. He had broken into the home of Joseph Kerler, at No. 1011 Union Place, Woodhaven, where he stole two blocks away. Kerler subdued Granger only after a hard fight, claiming acknowledgment that he was drunk.

The Magistrate reduced the charge to disorderly conduct, suspended sentence and placed Granger on probation for six months.
